SOME GOOD NEWS

As you will notice from our letterhead, we are now registered with SnapScan. If you wish to donate money to our school and kids, you can now just scan and pay, however, kindly send me a WhatsApp or email reflecting your name and email address as a reference, so that I can thank you.

SOME HAPPY MOMENTS

Sedrick entertained the kids on one of our sunny days in the play area. He brought his guitar and he and the kids had an awesome sing-a-long. Thank you, Sedrick!

DONATION OF BLANKETS TO OUR KIDS

Ann, who also reads to the kids on Fridays, brought some warm blankets for the kids to sleep under during these cold winter months. There is a group of ladies (called "67 Blankets") who knit and donate worldwide. They have already handmade 167 000 blankets, and hundreds of thousands of scarves, and donated them to those in need, setting four Guinness World Records in the process. A very big thank you to all these wonderful ladies who are doing such a great job!

ABIGAIL SPOILING THE KIDS

Abigail spoilt the kids with a lip-smacking cupcake for Mandela Day. Thank you, Abigail, for all the treats, food and fundraising for our kids and school.

After a long June/July holiday, there was a Level 9 weather warning for the week and the government closed all schools. Thereafter, the kids were back at school and started to work again.
