TEAM BUILDING

Activities to refresh the mind, body and soul

What is the purpose of a team-building retreat?

Off-site team-building retreats are a popular way of uncovering new talent, sparking new ideas, developing current skills and igniting passion and creativity. This is a way for forward-thinking companies to combine work with play whilst stimulating growth as well as attracting and retaining talent. Some aspects that your company will focus on during your team retreat is getting to know your team better, exploring strengths and weaknesses, and improving team morale. This is achieved through activities such as:

- Potjiekos competition
- Fun construction competition
- Minute to win it
- Guessing games
- The floor is lava
- Puzzle competitions
- Communication games
